Re: Docket No. 1999-297-G – Gas Redelivery Agreement

Dear Ms. Boyd:

On July 16, 1999, the Public Service Commission of South Carolina issued Order No. 1999-509 in the above-captioned docket approving a special contract arrangement (“Agreement”) between Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. (“Piedmont”) and Invista (f/k/a Arteva Specialties) S.a.r.L. d/b/a KoSa (“Invista”) for the provision of natural gas redelivery service to Invista’s Spartanburg manufacturing plant. The Agreement became effective August 1, 1999 for an initial term of twenty (20) years. This Agreement provides for assignment or transfer with written notice to Piedmont with the provision that the assignee or transferee provides Piedmont with satisfactory evidence of its creditworthiness.

On February 16, 2011, Invista provided notice to Piedmont of the purchase of its Spartanburg plant by Auriga Polymers, Inc. (“Auriga”) and of Invista’s intent to assign the Agreement to Auriga as of March 1, 2011. Following its receipt of Invista’s notice, Piedmont satisfied itself of the creditworthiness of Auriga and the assignment of the Agreement proceeded as planned such that Auriga is now receiving service from Piedmont under the Agreement.

This letter is to inform the Commission of the assignment of the Agreement for services beginning March 1, 2011.

Sincerely,

s/ Scott M. Tyler
